Quesnel and District Community Arts Council
500 North Star Road
Quesnel, BC V2J 5P6

Why should you join the Quesnel and District Community Arts Council?

CONNECT:

- with other community members who are interested in arts, culture and heritage;
- with customers/clients who care about corporate social investment and recognize the importance of the arts to a sustainable community;
- with local cultural enterprise opportunities and to qualify for the arts council's grants.

COLLABORATE:

- with other community members and organizations in the development and support of local cultural programs, projects and events.

CONTRIBUTE:

- to the sustainable economic development of the region, working with local governments in the provision of cultural services to their residents, businesses and visitors, underscoring the value of the arts, culture and heritage in community health and wellness;
- to the development and support of local programs, projects and events for all ages/abilities in the visual and performing arts, literature, new media, multiculturalism and heritage, as well as the culinary arts and the local agriculture movement;
- to the development of a regional Performing Arts Centre;
- Support for member groups.

Benefits of Individual Membership

- Online Member Group Directory including hyperlink, driving traffic to your group's website while increasing your visibility in the community;
- Access to arts information and the opportunity to display information about local arts and culture events on our Facebook Page and website. QDCAC often displays these materials when participating in community outreach activities as well;
- Free web page and link to your website;
- Notice of upcoming performances, events and workshops;
- Networking opportunities for all aspects of the cultural community including contact with other galleries, arts councils, festivals, venues and promoters;
- Voting privileges at the Annual General Meeting of the Quesnel Arts Council.

Benefits of Group Membership

Arts, culture and community member groups receive the same benefits as individual membership, as well as:

- Opportunities to give live performances at Art Council special events such as Children's Concerts, Culture Days, the Winter Carnival and many others;
- Free or discounted use of meeting rooms at the Quesnel & District Arts and Recreation Centre;
- Preferred rates for Liability Insurance through the Arts Council's Group Liability Insurance Program, created to provide community groups with affordable liability insurance;
- Invitations to nominate candidates for the bi-annual arts recognition awards (Gallery of Honour);
- Opportunity to collaborate/partner with the Arts Council regarding programming, workshops, concerts and events;
- Opportunity to receive grants;
- Opportunity to collaborate/partner with the Arts Council in providing bursaries to Quesnel students.
