We believe that art, in all its forms, is a positive force in our community. It enriches our culture, enlivens our community, and strengthens our ties with each other. The Quesnel Art Trail is a 3 week self-guided tour through displays of artists' works in local downtown businesses.

Business Requirements and Suggestions:

1. Participating businesses are encouraged to collaborate with their paired artist in hanging, displaying and securing their work in the venue.
2. We suggest that participating businesses clear the display space of any other items for the duration of the Art Walk (except for permanent installations, utility panels, etc.) as required.
3. The artist is responsible for all display materials, but the business may contribute display tables, etc. 4.
4. Businesses are not required to sell the artwork, but the works may be for sale. The artist's contact information will be clearly visible, and the public should be encouraged to contact the artist if they wish to purchase an item.
5. Please remain open during your regular operation hours through Sept 23- October 15.
6. Participating businesses are strongly urged to do their own promotion of the event.

Terms and Conditions I understand and agree to the following:

- √ The artist has entrusted their work to our business, and we will do our best to ensure its security.
- √ An Artist and Venue Agreement will be completed and returned by September 5; this is signed by both the artist and the business representative.
- √ The business representative will work with the artist to determine space, display, and traffic flow; the artwork should be installed on or before September 23, 2023.
- √ Unless other arrangements are made in advance, the business or representative will work with the artist to coordinate clean-up of the space once the event is finished on October 15, 2023.
- √ The artwork may be sold but the business is not responsible for selling the artwork; contact information for the artist will be clearly displayed with the work so interested buyers can contact the artist directly.
- √ I/We grant the QAC permission to take and use photos of my business and the artist display for promotional purposes in print, and on social media sites.
- √ The organizers (QAC) do not cover expenses pertaining to the Art Trail displays in the business.

There is no charge for registration for this year's Art Trail. The organizers appreciate your willingness to participate in this event and to promote the visual arts in Quesnel.
