

Axis Theatre - Troll Grandfather

March 4, 2023 – 2:00 pm

Trolls, dragons, and a 9-year-old? Oh my! Our young heroine, Sandy Nardini, is less than pleased to be staying with their estranged Grandpa for the summer. His house is so boring! There is nothing fun to do with old, odd Gren Nardini while he eats chicken bones and drinks dirt tea. Sandy knows their mother's health issues are the reason for the visit but Grandpa doesn't know anything about it. Until one night, Sandy discovers a secret that everyone has been hiding – Grandpa's a Troll! After sharing the millennia of their Troll family history, the pair set out on a quest to claim Sandy's magical birthright, a blessing that could save their mother's life. Witness Sandy's bravery as they connect to a part of their identity they never knew existed and unites their family in the process.

Karima Essa

June 3, 2023

A three-time Canadian National Dance champion, Karima Essa is Vancouver's very own Bollywood star. An incredibly charismatic and passionate performer, choreographer and instructor, she has used her one-of-a-kind Bollywood talent to entertain diverse audiences at festivals, theatres and in schools across Canada. In 2014, her love for Bollywood took her to the screens in Mumbai, India, as a two-time finalist on Omni TV's reality show, Bollywood Star. With style, grace and a flair for the dramatic, she has been captivating adult and young audiences for decades.

Pier 21: The Musical Welcome Home

October 22, 2022– 2:00 pm

Connect with Canada's immigration history in the very gateway that inspired the production Pier 21: The Musical. Refugees and immigrants flee Europe as war breaks out in 1939. After half a million soldiers depart from Pier 21 to fight in the Second World War, War Brides and a new generation of immigrants arrive to take their first steps on Canadian soil through the Pier.

Buzz Brass:

History of Music

November 28, 2022

6:00 pm

A fabulous theatrical odyssey that travels through space and time at a thrilling tempo to explore the music of the Western world from pre-historic times to the present day. The show is bursting with energy and combines astounding originality with extraordinary musicianship along with a brassy humour all its own. From the outset to the very end, all find themselves captivated by the rich and colourful theatrical staging that is perfectly integrated with the music.

DuffleBag Theatre: A Christmas Carol

December 9, 2022 – 6:00 pm

Penny-pinching miser Ebenezer Scrooge is well-known across Victorian London for being far more interested in making money than friends. Above all else, he hates Christmas time and its spirit of giving. But on one particular Christmas Eve, several spirits give Ebenezer the surprise of his life, as they whisk him off on a magical journey through past, present and future, to show him the true meaning of the season. A Charles Dickens Yuletide classic!
